Watchleader / Flotilla Skipper IYT (5 day Course) on Yachts or Catamarans

A course designed for students who hold an International Crew certificate or who have at least one seasons experience on a yacht. This course provides both a theoretical and practical understanding of simple navigation as well as seamanship and boat handling skills. The course trains you to become a skipper who can handle a crew, navigate safely and take command of a vessel in fair weather in safe coastal waters. The 5 day course is structured to ensure the novice skipper become proficient and confident. This is a serious but fun course with quality IYT teaching in an idyllic location.

The course is taught by IYT Instructors who have many years of sailing experience, all over the world. Sail in Asia is unique in Asia in that the Chief Instructor is both RYA and IYT qualified. This guarantees that teaching standards and delivery is the highest in Asia.

Minimum two persons, Maximum (5 persons). Some night sailing and overnight sailing will also be planned. Theory will be taught in both classroom and yacht, as appropriate. Course outline below or on www.sailinasiatraining.com
